Sign Wars

[WARNING: THIS GAME HAS THE POTENTIAL FOR BEING MESSY]

When -

- Preparation time at 8:00pm
- The game begins at 9:30pm and ends at midnight

Teams -

- Girls - Red
- Boys - Blue

Ways to win -

- Have the least amount of spray paint on your wooden sign.
- Get the most spray paint on your opponent's wooden sign.
- Have the least number of teammates tallied for elimination.

Rules -

- What you CANNOT do
 - Use harsh physical contact! If you hit, kick, harshly push/tackle an opponent, the offender will be disqualified. (Permissible physical contact: Any use of your hands that does not include the prohibited list above)
 - Use physical contact on the person's head/face.
 - Use any hard object to inflict pain on your opponent. If you know that the object can hurt someone, don't use it! (Anyone found harming another student will be disqualified)
 - Use an unsanitary, unsafe, or irritative material/item which can affect a person's wellbeing. (If the object can easily puncture skin, don't use it)
 - Use eggs
 - Throw, spray, or pour any material at or in vehicles. (You will be tallied and personally cleaning the vehicles if you break this rule.)
 - Run with a sign. (The sign must stay in its designated spot)
 - Place your wooden sign in an unreachable/unobtainable spot. (It must be easily accessible, visible, on the ground, and in the yard of the host home)
 - Use orbee or paintball guns
 - Use items from the host home without the adult's permission
 - Directly spray paint your opponent
 - Wash off your sign after the game is over.
 - Use any bodily fluids on another individual. (If you break this rule, your entire team is disqualified.)
 - Ask Alston for information that gives you and your team an unfair advantage, so don't ask.
